

The Brewer

Hi. I am Mike Lees, President of the Scottish Beer and Pub Association. I am also the Managing Director of Tennent Caledonian Breweries in Glasgow, which has been brewing beer since 1556. Scotland's beer and pub industry contributes billions of pounds to the Scottish economy and employs 150,000 people in over 5,000 pubs at the heart of communities in every city, town and village across Scotland. The face of the modern Scottish pub is changing with tens of millions of pounds being invested in improving the pub visiting experience for our millions of customers every week. We are all part of Scotland's beer and pub industry.

The Scottish Beer and Pub Association (SBPA) was established in 1906. Its members include all of Scotland's major brewers and retail pub chains. SBPA represents 1,500 of Scotland's 5,100 licensed pubs. Scotland's beer and pub industry contributes hundreds of millions of pounds each year to the economic and social wellbeing of Scotland through employment, investment and training.
